VIII. A Continuation of an Account of an Essay towards a Natural History of Carolina and the Bahama Islands; by Mark Catesby F. R. S. with some Extracts out of the tenth Set, by Cromwell Mortimer Secr. R. S.

Read Nov. 19. 1747. THE Abstract of the preceding Set, which I laid before this Society in the Year 1738. is printed in the Philosophical Transactions N^o. 449. This tenth Set begins with Plate 100, of the second Volume. In this Part of the Work, the Author, besides Plants, has given us several Insects, particularly some remarkable Butterflies. He begins this Set with the Mahogany-Tree, whose Wood is of late Years become so well known here in England, for all sorts of Joyner's Work,
